ASHLAND SHAKESPEARE PLAY FEBRUARY 29TH 11am-6pm

Lets go to lunch and then watch Animal Crackers. A mad cap musical vaudeville from the 1920's, Animal Crackers involves a quartet of irreverent zanies who descend on a posh country weekend party completely upending everyone's lives. (Captain Spaulding is the guest of honor, but he and his secretary Jamison have no interest in manners or social status.) Spaulding would much rather poke fun at everything while he tries to convince his wealthy, widowed hostess to marry him. Written for the Marx Brothers, this slapstick madcap musical busts out with zany songs and lavish dance numbers. Released as a film after the 1929 Wall Street crash and recently adapted, it proves that you can't keep an anarchic comedy full of pungent one-liners down.

Bring money for lunch and snack.

Members: $65 Non-Members: $95. Registration deadline is February 7, 2012.

Limited to 17 participants.

HISTORICAL MUSEUMS IN DEL NORTE MARCH 15th 9am-5pm

Let's go to the coast! We will go to Crescent City and visit the County Historical Museum which features the 1964 Tsunami Fresnel Lens, Furniture, Quilts, Tolowa/Yurok Room, Music Room, 1926 Jail Cells, Early Mills, Railroads, Mining and Ore Samples. We will also see Battery Point Lighthouse. Enjoy a breathtaking view of the surrounding seastacks and Pacific coastline. If the tide and weather conditions are right we will be able to go out to the lighthouse. We will eat lunch at The Chart Room overlooking the Harbor.

Bring money for lunch and pack water and snacks.
