The YMCA is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate in recruitment, hiring or other terms or conditions of employment on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, age or any other status protected by law.

Volunteerism is the willingness of people to work on behalf of others. A volunteer is not an employee, will not receive compensation, nor be eligible for coverage under Worker's Compensation laws. Volunteers may have special training or recognize a need and fill it. A volunteer is a person who serves in a community because they choose to do so.
