A MIDSUMMER NIGHTS DREAM Rescheduled for April 24th

Did you know that the Oregon Shakespeare Festival was founded in 1935 by Angus L. Bowmer and was officially born on July 2, 1935 with a production of Twelfth Night. The Tony Award-winning Oregon Shakespeare Festival is among the oldest and largest professional non-profit theatres in the nation. If you have not been or have thought about going join us and be pleasantly surprised by the outstanding production that you will see there.

This time we will watch A Midsummer Night's Dream.

"The course of true love never did run smooth" Hermia loves Lysander, Demetrius loves Hermia, Helena loves Demetrius, Theseus and Hippolyta are almost newlyweds and the already-complex marriage of the immortal queen and king of Fairyland is further complicated when one of them falls for an amateur actor-turned-ass. Intrigued by the theory that Shakespeare wrote this play as a wedding gift, director Joseph Haj probes the pitfalls and pay-offs of relationships, be they budding or eternal. Seeking out the grace, beauty and delight embedded in the comedy, this joyful, music-laden production invites us to feel as well as laugh.
